

SeaGL 2025

FREEDOM IS IN THE CARDS

November 7th & 8th at the University of Washington

*Online streaming also available

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Submission deadline: June 30th

SeaGL is an annual community-focused conference supporting free/libre/open source software, hardware, and culture.

For enthusiastic newcomers to professionals, and everyone in between!

We are seeking presentations that explore the intersection of technology, community, and freedom via topics such as:

Cloud & Infrastructure

Community & Culture

Education

Languages & Tools

Open Hardware

Open Source AI & Data Science

Open Source Careers

Performance Art

Security & Privacy

Systems & Platforms

... and more!

Submit Your Proposals Today!

Everyone is invited to present,
no previous experience required.

 @seagl.org

 @seagl@mastodon.social

 <https://seagl.org/cfp>

100% run by volunteers!